

Southington Scene

Dance Arts performs a dance from a medley of songs from "The Sound of Music."

Artwork by Southington High School students.

Mark Pooler and Jay Jaronko sing their own edited version of "If I had A Million Dollars."

Time for dinner and awards

The Southington YMCA holds its annual dinner meeting at the Aqua Turf on Wednesday, Jan. 27.

DePaolo Middle School vice-principal Chris Palmieri was honored as the YMCA's Person of the Year, ESPN received the Reaching Out award, which recognizes groups and businesses for their charity work and volunteerism and Eldon Hafford was given the Unsung Hero award.

The recipients were recognized during a news conference in November.

Dr. George and Susan Skarvinko admire Mary DeCroce's YMCA class' work.

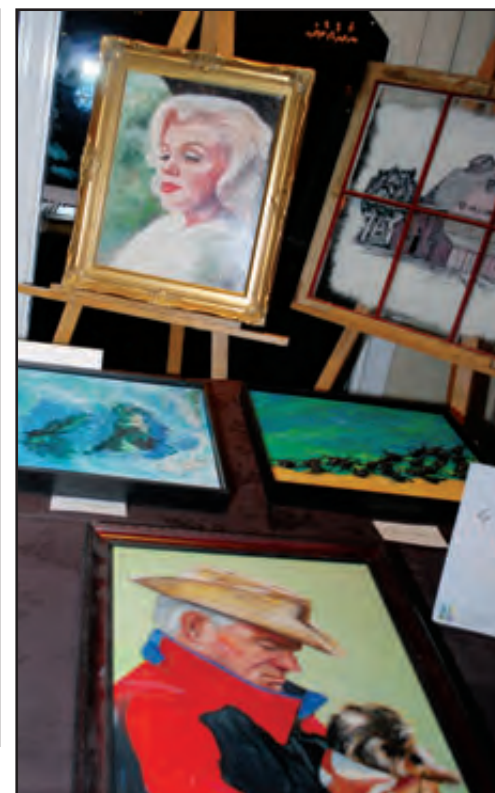

Joe Scollo and Valentine the Clown.

Betsy Chester (lang arts coordinator for the district) and Betty Lutz (principal of Kelly School) and Kathy Ricard look over a painting.

Maggie Carroll

PHOTOS BY
Tammi Knapik