

Southington Scene

During the Miss Connecticut prelims, reigning Miss CT Ashley Glenn listens to Miss Southington Shannon Erickson during her onstage interview.

Plantsville's Outstanding Teen Lynze Khan introduces herself.

Greater Waterbury's Outstanding Teen Caitlyn Flynn performs during the talent section on the second night of prelims.

Locals vie for state crown

Twenty-two year old Sharalynn Kuziak, who was competing as Miss Constitution, was crowned as Miss Connecticut 2009 on Saturday. She was selected from a pool of 19 girls at the Garde Arts Center in New London in a scholarship pageant held from Thursday to Saturday.

Several other Southington women and teens also competed.

Photos by
Mike Chaiken

Left, Miss Fairfield county Taylor Hira, center, performs during the opening number.

Above, Sharalynn Kuziak, Miss Constitution, performs during the talent portion of the event.