Lightning KO's Cancer

The Southington 16U Lightning rebounded from a loss in the first game to capture five games in a row and the tournament title at the Lightning Strike-Out Cancer tournament.

Meg Parks singled in the top of the seventh inning of the championship game to snap a 6-6 tie and cap the team's title run. Chrissy Swol and Rachel Mongillo drew back-to-back walks to open the final inning before Parks drove in the winning run.

Sarah Miller caught a towering fly ball to end the Viper's threat in the bottom of the seventh as Southington captured the title.

Mollie Bartles pitched 17 innings on the final day of the tournament, allowing just four earned runs and one walk in three victories. Miller and Parks went 18 for 29 over the weekend tournament with 15 runs scored and 18 runs batted in. Lauren Mahon, Ashley Cote, Kristen Brandien, Caitlin Downes, and Chrissy Swol anchored the defense.

The Southington Lightning 12U team also rallied for a title, going 5-0 over the weekend and out-scoring opponents, 45-10. Rebecca Gerrard, Emily Lippincott, Christina Cantone, Kayla Beaupre, Anna Gregoire, Lauren Zazzaro, Danielle
